Hello {{FirstName}},

Ok, now let's pour some gas on the fire. If you're now comfortable with the 'two who get two' model, what if we added one more level of duplication?

In other words, two who get two who get two? This is what we refer to as a 'POD'. POD also stands for 'Power of Duplication'. If you add that one level beyond the first two, you'll see your results skyrocket!

The attached 'MyPOD2.pdf' document will allow you to track your 2x2x2 POD. Be sure to put in real names, but use pencil. If someone doesn't get their two, erase their name and put in someone else who will.

All Associates should have this form and duplicate the same effort, that is, building a POD. Everyone that is able to fill out their 2x2x2 POD will become your Executive Leadership Team. After you have created one team, then start another. The more you do, the greater your success will be!

Of course, nothing works perfectly and people will not all do this perfectly. That is not saying that we should not try to. This is a part of the duplication process.

The POD form can be found in the 'Documents' section at : www.teamreactive.com.

Be sure to email us at info@teamreactive.com if you have any questions, or require any assistance.

Warm Regards,

Team Reactive
